

Capricon 40 Emerging Artists Program Call for Entries

Do you have students who create science fiction & fantasy art?

Tell them about Capricon's Emerging Artist Program!

Capricon sets aside a section of our annual Art Show to feature local artists currently enrolled in high school or undergraduate programs.

- No fees to display &/or sell work as an Emerging Artist.
- Exhibit alongside established artists and craftspersons.
- Reach a wide audience of writers, publishers, & art buyers.
- Attendance at the con is not required, but is welcomed.
- Volunteering at the convention may make you eligible for a free badge &/or accommodations!

To apply: email artshow@capricon.org with a digital copy/photo of the work you would be exhibiting, along with your name and what school you currently attend. Artists do not need to create new work to enter. Each student may exhibit a maximum of 5 pieces in the Emerging Artist Program.

Deadline to apply is January 1st, 2020.

Capricon is the longest-running 4-day SF & Fantasy convention in the Midwest. The event will be at the Westin Chicago North Shore in Wheeling, IL from Feb 13-16, 2020.

All convention attendees have the chance to vote for the best EAP entry.

The winner of the EAP Award receives:

a $50 award courtesy of ASFA (asfa-art.org)
and a custom trophy.
